READING GAMES: Little Misfortune (2019)

Reading Games (as in "we are reading games," not as if a series of gamified reading sessions) is a book club in which we will talk about video games instead of books, on a monthly basis. In order to join, you don't have to have any level of knowledge about video games, or define yourself as a "gamer." That term is becoming as meaningful as a term like "movie-goer," in today's world, in which digital games are everywhere as cultural products.

https://store.steampowered.com/app/714120/Little_Misfortune/

This session, we'll discuss 2019's Little Misfortune. You are expected to come prepared, i.e. play the game, and/or watch a video of someone else who's playing it for you/do some research about the game.

When? July 14, 2020, 7 p.m.

VIDEO PROJECT: ONE - A project by FIST featuring maniACTs, Spieltrieb, Stage Fried, Schall & Rauch, and MundWerk

Freiburg's student theatre groups are producing short films documenting their experiences in the current moment. Alone, in quarantine, connected via zoom, via mail, in thought. 3, 2, 1 ... 1 ... 1 ... 1 ... 1 - how much longer until normalcy?

New films go online Mondays and Thursdays, on the FIST's Facebook page.
