Despite contact restrictions, the book club Indigenous Reads, your colloquium dedicated to contemporary indigenous literature, will meet for an online reading of Jesse Thistle's From the Ashes, followed by a discussion with the author! The event was organized in cooperation with the Carl Schurz Haus library and will take place via Zoom.

In his debut memoir From the Ashes, Métis-Cree writer Jesse, once a high school dropout and now an Assistant Professor in Métis studies at York University in Toronto, chronicles his life on the streets and how he overcame trauma and addiction to discover the truth about who he is.

READING GAMES: Loved (2010)

Reading Games (as in "we are reading games," not as if a series of gamified reading sessions) is a book club in which we will talk about video games instead of books, on a monthly basis. In order to join, you don't have to have any level of knowledge about video games, or define yourself as a "gamer." That term is becoming as meaningful as a term like "movie-goer," in today's world, in which digital games are everywhere as cultural products.

This session, we'll discuss 2010's Loved, free to play online. You are expected to come prepared, i.e. play the game, and/or watch a video of someone else who's playing it for you/do some research about the game.

When? August 11, 2020, 7 p.m.
